Our 2018-2019 Season: Light out of Darkness

Darkness: We needn't look far to discover challenges and problems and reasons to despair. Right here in our own Sonoma County, we've had the terrible fires and their repercussions which will continue on into a largely unknown future. Our country is riven by strife and serious challenges both domestic and international. Species and habitat are being lost as our effects upon the planet take their toll. We live in a world of new, easy communication, but it seems more difficult to truly connect. Everyone seems to be pedaling harder and harder just to keep up. Undivided attention—a precious gift which we give to each other—seems harder to come by.

Light: Kindness is a light. Connection is a light. Generosity is a light. Bravery is a light. Eschewing self-interest in favor of family or community is a light. Truth is a light. Working for peace or freedom or justice is a light. We need to recognize such light whenever and wherever and in whomever we see it, and let it shine upon us. As E.M. Forster says, “Choose a place where you won’t do very much harm, and stand in it for all you are worth, facing the sunshine.”

But not only that — we need to be active, to take positive steps. My mom used to say, “When you have an overwhelming problem, ‘chunk it up’. Divide it into workable tasks, and start knocking them out.” Easy to say! But we can each identify small, discrete steps and start taking them. Send a check; make a call; extend a hand; smile at a stranger. By small degrees, we can climb out of ourselves and make connections; and every positive act we make towards the world outside ourselves shines a little light inside as well—it always works both ways.

Music: How can we be light-bringers? Well, our aspiration is to be a sort of conduit. We recognize glimmers in the music and words we rehearse and perform that brighten our gloom, and we want to share these with you. We pour what talents we have, our energies, our time, and, yes, our love into this work, so as to give these glimmers the best chance of reaching you.

Artists of all times and of all types have played this role. Somehow art—perhaps especially music—has the power to reach deep inside and light up the dark places. It doesn’t matter if it’s sacred or secular, popular or classical, serious or not—when it hits home, we know it, and it’s the true gold.

Torches: One could say that our season-ending Brahms Requiem is a sort of torchbearer: it’s the most healing piece of music that we know, and it’s the inspiration for our entire 2018–19 season. But we hope you find some illumination or warmth or comfort in each and every one of our eight productions, each with its own ‘certain slant of light’, each an attempt to carry that light across the miles and the centuries to you: Our friends, our families, our beloved Sonoma community.

An Affirming Flame

We began our planning with two sets of miniatures: Leonhard Lechner's Deutsche Sprüche von Leben und Tod (1606), 15 settings of four-line poems by Georg Rudolf Weckherlin; and Hugo Distler's Totentanz (1934), 14 settings of couplets by Angelus Silesius. Although separated by more than three hundred years, these pieces share many features, including their brevity; their koan-like character; and their cumulative sense of spiritual progress, of an arc moving from a state of despair and turbulence to a state of acceptance and peace.

Although Distler wrote in a modern idiom, he was constantly informed by his love for and knowledge of early music. Thus we felt that—as in our Early Music Christmas this season—his works could complement Lechner's music beautifully. We decided from the start to interlace these pieces together in brief groupings rather than to run each one straight through, and to add additional works to complete the program and to reinforce and enrich the overall spiritual-emotional arc.

These additional pieces fall into several categories. Each of our four ‘sets’ includes a motet from Johann Hermann Schein’s magisterial collection Israelsbrünnlein (‘Fountain of Israel’). These pieces each describe the movement from pain or need or despair toward hope and freedom, and thus present in miniature the theme of our program.

And each set includes a Latin motet, beginning in the first set with Josquin’s ‘Agnus Dei...dona nobis pacem’ from the Missa Pange lingua, one of the most powerful musical prayers for peace; and closing in the fourth set with Ludwig Senfl’s joyful Non moriar, sed vivam (‘I shall not die, but shall live and declare the works of God’).

Beginning and ending each half of our concert are motets by Johannes Brahms. These too reinforce the movement from darkness (the stunning opening to Warum ist das Licht, Opus 74, No.1) to light (the ‘calm after the storm’ of the Geistliches Lied, opus 30).

And finally, before and after each set, we have interpolated solo organ works by J.S. Bach and his uncle, Johann Michael Bach, from the so-called Neumeister Collection housed at Yale. These help to set the mood for each section and provide moments of meditation and reflection throughout the program.

Our intent throughout is to demonstrate the power of music to both express our deepest fears and to lead us out of these into hope and the quest for joy. We ourselves offer no pat solutions, and certainly are not advocating a particular religious path; but we have found that music and poetry can embody real consolation and can serve all of us as a guidepost in our journeys. In these troubled times, we offer our concert in hopes that these messages of hope and peace and love from composers and poets long-gone can illuminate our darkness and help us to a brighter life.

From Two Motets, Opus 74 (1878): No. 1: Warum ist das Licht gegeben .....Johannes Brahms
1. Warum ist das Licht gegeben dem Mühseligen (Job 3:20-23)

Warum ist Licht gegeben dem Mühseligen,
Und das Leben den betrübten Herzen? Warum?
Die des Todes warten und kommt nicht
Und grüben ihn wohl aus dem verborgenen;
Die sich fast freuen und sind fröhlich,
daß sie das Grab bekommen. Warum?
Und dem Manne des Weg verborgen ist,
Und Gott vor ihm denselben bedecket?
Warum?

Why has light been given to the weary of soul,
And life to the troubled hearts? Why?
They who wait for death, and it doesn't come;
They who dig for it even out of secret places;
Those who almost rejoice and are happy
That they achieve the grave. Why?
And to the man whose way is hidden,
And from whom God himself has been concealed? Why?

From Totentanz (1934).....Hugo Distler (1908—1942)
1. Laß alles, was du hast (III: 219)

Laß alles, was du hast, auf daß du alles nehmst!
Verschmäh die Welt, daß du sie tausendfach bekömmst! Im Himmel ist der Tag, im Abgrund ist die Nacht. Hier ist die Dämmerung:
Wohl dem, der's recht betracht!

Leave all that you have, to take all!
Despise the world, to receive it a thousand-fold!
In heaven is day, in the abyss is night,
Here it is twilight:
Good for him who sees it rightly.

From Missa Pange lingua .....Josquin Desprez (c.1452-55—1521)
Agnus Dei III

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi:
Dona nobis pacem.

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world: Grant us peace.

From Deutsche Sprüche von Leben und Tod (1606) ..... Leonhard Lechner (1553—1606)

1. Alles auf Erden

Alles auf Erden
stets mit Gefährden
des Falls; sich wendet, hin und her ländet.

Everything on earth is always in danger of the Fall; it goes around here and there it ends up.

2. Auch Sonn, Mond, Sterne

Auch Sonn, Mond, Sterne,
Wittrung bewähren
samt den Jahrszeiten Unb'ständigkeiten.

Even so sun, moon, stars weather prove,
along with the seasons,
(to be) inconsistencies.

From Israelsbrünlein (1623) ..... Johann Hermann Schein (1586—1630)

19. Ach Herr, ach meiner schone (poem probably by Schein)

Ach Herr, ach meiner schone, nach deim Grimm mir nicht ablohne.
Denn deine Pfeil zumal machen mir große Qual.

O Lord, O my protector,
cast Your ire not upon me,
For Your arrows
cause me such great agony.

O weh, mein armes Herz
empfindet großen Schmerz.
O du mein lieber Herre Gott, hilf mir in meiner großen Not.

Oh, my poor Heart is greatly afflicted.
O you, my beloved Lord God,
help me in my great distress.

From Totentanz (1934) ..... Hugo Distler

2. Mensch, die Figur der Welt

Mensch, die Figur der Welt vergehet mit der Zeit. Was trotz'st du dann so viel auf ihre Herrlichkeit?

Man, the beauty of the world passes away.
Why then do you so stubbornly insist upon its glory?

3. Wann du willst gradeswegs

Wann du willst gradeswegs ins ew'ge Leben
geh'n, so laß die Welt und dich zur linken Seite stehn!

If you would go straight to eternal life,
Then leave the world and yourself on your left hand!

4. O Sünder, wann du wohl bedächtst

O Sünder, wann du wohl bedächtst das kurze
Nun, und dann die Ewigkeit: Du würdst nicht Böses tun!

O sinner, if you only thought upon the short
Now, And then Eternity: You would do no evil!

Interlude

From The Neumeister Collection of Chorale Preludes of the Bach Circle (compiled ca. 1790)

Kommt her zu mir ..... Johann Michael Bach (1648—1694)

Second Set

From Deutsche Sprüche von Leben und Tod (1606) ..... Leonhard Lechner

3. Wir Menschen reisen

Wir Menschen reisen
gleich armen Waisen, die sind mit Sorgen
ungewiß wo morgen.

We humans travel
like poor orphans,
who are with cares,
uncertain where [they'll be] tomorrow.

4. Heint frisch, wohlächtig

Heint frisch, wohlächtig,
gsund, schön und prächtig:
morgen verdorben,
tot und gestorben.

Tonight fresh, powerful,
healthy, beautiful and lovely,
tomorrow, ruined
and dead.

5. In Gottes Händen

In Gottes Händen
alls steht zu enden:
sein wir geduldig,
erwarten schuldig.

In God's hands
everything stands at the end;
let us be patient,
await, guilty.

From Israelsbrunnlein (1623) ..... Johann Hermann Schein

21. Was betrübst du dich (Psalm 41:6)

Was betrübst du dich, meine Seele, und bist so unruhig in mir? Harre auf Gott;
denn ich werde ihm noch danken, daß er meines Angesichtes Hülfe und mein Gott ist.

Why are you cast down, my soul,
And are so restless in me? Await God;
for I shall yet praise Him, Since He is the help of my countenance, and is my God.

From Totentanz (1934) ..... Hugo Distler

5. Dein bester Freund

Dein bester Freund, dein Leib, der ist dein ärgster Feind, er bind't und hält dich auf:
So gut er's immer meint!

Your best friend, your body, is your worst enemy, He binds you and hinders you:
He always means well!

6. Der Reiche dieser Welt

Der Reiche dieser Welt, was hat er für Gewinn, daß er muß mit Verlust von seinem Reichtum ziehn?

The rich man of this world, what victory does he have, Since he must be parted from his riches?

7. Freund, Streiten ist nicht g'nug

Freund, Streiten ist nicht g'nug,
du mußt auch überwinden,
wo du willst ew'ge Ruh,
und ew'gen Frieden finden!

Friend, to strive is not enough:
you must also overcome,
If you would find eternal rest and eternal peace!

From Opus musicum (c.1588)

Ecce quomodo moritur justus (Isaiah 57:1-2) .....	Jacobus Handl (1550—1591)
Ecce quomodo moritur justus et nemo percipit corde.	Behold how the righteous man dies And no one understands.
Viri justi tolluntur et nemo considerat.	Righteous men are taken away And no one considers:
A facie iniquitatis sublatus est justus et erit in pace memoria eius: In pace factus est locus ejus et in Sion habitatio ejus. Et erit in pace memoria ejus.	The righteous have been removed from present iniquity, And his memory shall be in peace. In peace is his place, And in Sion is his homestead. And his memory shall be in peace.

From Two Motets, Opus 74 (1878): No. 1: Warum ist das Licht .....Johannes Brahms

Movement 2: Lasset uns unser Herz (Lamentations 3 :41)

Lasset uns unser Herz samt den Händen aufheben zu Gott im Himmel.

Let us lift up our hearts, together with our hands, to God in heaven.

From Two Motets, Opus 74 (1878): No. 1: Warum ist das Licht .....Johannes Brahms

Movement 3: Siehe, wir preisen selig (James 5:11)

Siehe, wir preisen selig, die erduldet haben.
Die Geduld Hiob habt ihr gehöret, und das Ende des Herrn habt ihr gesehen;
denn der Herr ist barmherzig und ein Erbarmer!

Behold, we value them as blessed who have endured. You have heard of the patience of Job,
And the Lord's conclusion you have seen:
For the Lord is merciful and has compassion!

From Deutsche Sprüche von Leben und Tod (1606)

6. Gedenk mit nichten

Gedenk mitnichten
dich bständig z'richten in die Welt gefährlich
drin nichts beharrlich.

Never mind,
you can count on it
in the dangerous world wherein nothing is constant.

7. Wenn sich erschwinget

Wenn sich erschwinget
das Glück, dir g'linget,
tu nit drauf bauen,
ihm z'viel vertrauen.

When you have been afforded
Luck, when it touches you,
Don't build upon it,
Don't trust in it too much.

8. So überfallen dich Trübsals Qualen

So überfallen
dich Trübsals Qualen,
sei nicht kleinkämig,
murrend, ungütig.

Similarly, if the torment of distress falls upon you,
be not faint-hearted
nor grumble, unhappy.

9. Was jetzt im Laufen

Was jetzt im Laufen
liegt bald zu Haufen, das kann sich schicken
all Augenblicken.

What's going on now
is soon to be a dust-heap;
this can come to pass
all in the blink of an eye.

From Israelsbrünlein (1623) ..... Johann Hermann Schein

17. Herr laß meine Klage (Psalm 119:169-170)

Herr, laß meine Klage für dich kommen;
unterweise mich nach deinem Wort,
laß mein Flehen für dich kommen.
Errette mich nach deinem Worte.
Meine Lippen sollen loben,
wenn du mich deine Rechte lehrest.

Let my cry come before you, O Lord;
give me discernment according to your word.
Let my prayer come before you;
rescue me according to your promise.
May my lips pour forth your praise,
as you teach me your laws.

From Totentanz (1934) ..... Hugo Distler

8. Die Welt ist deine See

Die Welt ist deine See, der Schiffmann Gottes Geist, das Schiff dein Leib, die Seel ist's, die nach Hause reist.

The world is your sea, the skipper God's spirit,
The ship your body, your soul the one bound for home.

9. Das überlichte Licht

Das überlichte Licht schaut man in diesem
Leben nicht anders, als wenn man schier ins
Dunkle sich begeben.

We look at brilliant light in this life no differently than when we go down into deep darkness.

10. Freund, wer in jener Welt

Freund, wer in jener Welt will lauter Rosen brechen, den müssen z'vor allhier die Dornen g'nugsam stechen.

Friend, whoever in that world (beyond) would pluck roses, must first be pricked here by plenty of thorns.

From Moduli quinque vocum (1588) ..... Orlando de Lassus (c.1553—1594)

Da pacem Domine (votive antiphon)

Da pacem, Domine, in diebus nostris ;
quia non est aliis qui pugnet pro nobis
nisi tu, Deus noster.

Give peace, O Lord, in our time;
for there is no one else who fights for us
if not you, our God.

From Deutsche Sprüche von Leben und Tod (1606) ..... Leonhard Lechner

10. Weil dann so unstet

Weil dann so unstet dies Schiff der Welt geht,
so laßt uns denken, wohin zu lenken.

Because the Ship of the World sails so unsteadily, let us think about where to steer.

11. Wir wollen kehrten

Wir wollen kehrten zu Gott dem Herren, uns nach sein G'fallen richten in allem.

Would that we turn to God the Lord,
So that his will should rule us above all.

12. Ihn fürchten lieben

Ihn fürchten, lieben,
sein Wort steht üben,
Er wird erbarmen
sich unser Armen.

Fear him, love him,
Follow His word,
He will have mercy
upon us poor ones.

Interlude

Von Gott will ich nicht lassen ..... Johann Michael Bach

Fourth Set

From Totentanz (1934) ..... Hugo Distler

11. Auf, auf, der Bräut'gam kömmt

Auf, auf, der Bräut'gam kömmt: Man geht nicht mit ihm ein, wo man des Augenblicks nicht kann bereitet sein.

Arise, arise, the bridegroom comes: You will not go in with him unless you can be ready for that moment.

12. Mensch, wenn dir auf der Welt

Mensch, wenn dir auf der Welt zu lang wird Weil und Zeit, so kehr dich nur zu Gott ins Nun der Ewigkeit!

Man, if your stay and time on earth become too long to you, then turn to God in the Now of eternity!

13. Die Seele, welche hier noch kleiner

Die Seele, welche hier noch kleiner ist als klein, wird in dem Himmelreich der schönste Engel sein.

The soul, which here is smaller than small,
Will be in heaven's realm the fairest angel.

From Israelsbrünnlein (1623) ..... Johann Hermann Schein

XXV. Lehre uns bedenken (Psalm 90:12-14)

Lehre uns bedenken, daß wir sterben müssen, auf daß wir klug werden.

Herr, kehre Dich doch wieder zu uns und sei deinen Knechten gnädig!

Fülle uns früh mit deiner Gnade, so wollen wir rühmen
und fröhlich sein unser Leben lang.

Teach us to consider that we must die,
so that we might become wise.

Lord, turn again to us,
and be merciful with your servants!

In the morning, fill us with Your grace,
so that we might praise You and be happy all our lives long.

From Deutsche Sprüche von Leben und Tod (1606) ..... Leonhard Lechner

13. Sein Gnad und Güten

Sein Gnad und Güten
wird uns behüten,
trösten, entbinden
von unsfern Sünden.

His mercy and goodness will protect us,
console us, free us
from our sins.

14. Sein Hand wird retten

Sein Hand wird retten
aus allen Nöten:
wir leben, sterben,
jetzt nit verderben.

His hands will save us
from all suffering.
We live, we die,
we will not come to ruin.

15. Nach diesem Leiden

Nach diesem Leiden
er ewig Freuden
uns schenkt ohnfehlig.
Dann sind wir selig.

After this suffering,
He eternal joy
will send to us without fail.
Then we are blessed.

Non moriar, sed vivam (Psalm 118:17) ..... Ludwig Senfl (c.1490—1543)

Non moriar sed vivam Et narrabo opera Domini.

I shall not die, rather live,
And tell of the works of the Lord.

From Totentanz (1934) ..... Hugo Distler

14. Die Seele, weil sie ist geborn

Die Seele, weil sie ist geborn zur Ewigkeit, hat keine wahre Ruh in Dingen dieser Zeit.
Drum ist's verwunderlich, daß du die Welt so liebst, und aufs Vergängliche dich allzusehr begibst.

The soul, being born to all eternity,
Has no true rest in things of this age.
Thus it is to be wondered at that you love the world so, and devote yourself so much to things that pass away.

From The Neumeister Collection of Chorale Preludes of the Bach Circle (compiled ca. 1790)

Jesu meines Lebens Leben (BWV 1107) ..... Johann Sebastian Bach

Geistliches Lied, Opus 30 (1864); Poem by Paul Fleming (1609—1640).....Johannes Brahms

Laß dich nur nichts nicht dauren mit Trauren, sei stille, wie Gott es fügt,
so sei vergnügt mein Wille!

Was willst du heute sorgen auf morgen?
Der Eine steht allem für, der gibt auch dir das Deine.

Sei nur in allem Handel ohn Wandel, steh feste, was Gott beschleußt,
das ist und heißt das Beste.
Amen.

Do not be sorrowful or regretful;
Be calm, as God has ordained,
and thus my will shall be content.

What do you want to worry about from day to day? There is One who stands above all who gives you, too, what is yours.

Only be steadfast in all you do, stand firm; what God has decided,
that is and is called the Best.
Amen.

David Parsons, formerly Organist for 18 years at the First United Methodist Church of Palo Alto, is a graduate of Princeton, Northwestern and Cambridge Universities, and of Trinity Evangelical Divinity School (Illinois). While serving at the church in Palo Alto he supervised the refurbishment of the 100-rank pipe organ and established a monthly organ recital series. He is currently a Deputy Organist at Stanford University's Memorial Church, and Curator of the Organs at Schroeder Hall at Sonoma State University.

Robert Worth is the founding music director of Sonoma Bach. In 2010, he retired as Professor of Music at Sonoma State University, where he taught choral music and many other subjects for 27 years. In addition to his work in the fields of choral and early music, Bob has a specialty in musicianship training, and for ten years ran the ear training program at SSU. He was deeply involved in the Green Music Center project in its early years, serving as consultant to the architects on such issues as acoustics, choral performance facilities and the Cassin pipe organ. Bob received his BA in music at SSU, and his MA in musicology at UC Berkeley.

Sonoma Bach 2018-2019 High School Art Competition

This season, Sonoma Bach invited Petaluma High School art students to explore our theme “Light Out of Darkness” and submit a new piece of artwork for our competition. We hope you will enjoy the submissions displayed in the lobby during intermission.

Judges

Andrea Herold is a local artist who performs with the Sonoma Bach Choir. Her passion in life is transformation, moving from inner suffering towards freedom. In her paintings she tries to express the inner life. Andrea uses painting as a way to process issues she is grappling with, and enjoys exploring what true authentic expression means to her. She allows inspiration to take her wherever it wants to go, and she has no particular attachment to any style or any subject, as long as it feels relevant and moves her. In the future, she hopes to keep deepening her work as she grows and changes.

Elena Righi is a recent graduate from California Institute of the Arts, Valencia where she received her BFA in Costume Design with a concentration in Character and Costume Illustration and a Minor in Digital Arts. Elena has extensive experience with traditional media such as acrylic, watercolor, and graphite. She is currently sharpening her digital illustration skills in concept design for film at CG-Master Academy under the mentorship of established illustrators in the film industry. Elena has experience working in pre-production and production of film, theater, and music videos where she has illustrated and developed characters and their costumes. She has extreme respect for the art of film-making as a form of storytelling and aims to learn about every facet of pre-production including storyboarding and screenwriting.

Lisa Russell is the art teacher and founder of Scribbles and Giggles Art Center in Rohnert Park. She is passionate about children and their art process and has mentored innumerable young students who ended up embracing the Fine Arts as their ultimate career. Founded in 1986, Scribbles and Giggles is considered the reference point in the community for art education from pre-school to college. Many of the art teachers Lisa employs are graduates of Lisa’s Art Center and young artists themselves. Lisa Russell is well known in the community as she volunteers her time in art committees and art events. She also teaches art in all grades in local schools in the Rohnert Park and Santa Rosa districts. The Art Center, just across from Rancho Cotate High School, is a constant bustle of activities.
