A page from a medieval manuscript containing four staves of musical notation. The music is written in black ink on light-colored, slightly aged paper. The notation consists of vertical stems with small horizontal dashes or dots indicating pitch and rhythm. The lyrics are written in a Gothic script and are repeated across the staves. The first staff begins with a large open circle (breve) and includes the text "ri a Ave Maria". The second staff begins with a large open circle and includes the text "ue Marri a Ave". The third staff begins with a large open circle and includes the text "ri a Ave Marri". The fourth staff begins with a large open circle and includes the text "a Ave Marri a". The fifth staff begins with a large open circle and includes the text "Ave Marri a Ave Marri". The sixth staff begins with a large open circle and includes the text "ri a Ave Marri a".
